Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Gray Morn passed the leaders on the far turn and came away easily at the end, but was hustled along strongly most of the way. Tros ran well for six furlongs, but tired in the last quarter. He could never get away from his field and did not run his race. Emily Oliver ran a good race. Anna Darling and Veritable Boy tired in the final drive.

Overweights—Florad, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g. by St. Carlo—Santa Cruz.
Went to post at 2:31. At post 20 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. St. Cuthbert was much the best, in fine form and easily drew away from the others in the last sixteenth. Odom never made a move on him. Automaton showed speed and hung on gamely. Lady Kent was crowded back soon after the start, but finished strongly and was catching Automaton at every stride in the last furlong. Alpaca was cut off at the far turn and Gormley pulled her up. Rival Dare ran away three-quarters in two different breakaways, once going the wrong way of the track and then the right way. Uranus was withdrawn by permission. He was unmanageable and Miller could do nothing with him. Scratched—(30768)Zack Ford, 104; (30759)Tom Collins, 104; (30784)The Bronze Demon, 96.
St. Cuthbert, show, out. Automaton, show, 9 to 5. Lady Kent, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Hindoo—Amy Davenport.
Went to post at 3:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ceylon wore the leaders down in the last turn of the field, caught Mr. Rose and Harv B. tiring and was going away at the end. The winner swerved across in front of Mr. Rose in the last sixteenth. Mr. Rose hardly performed up to expectations but seemed to be doing his best. Harv B. tired in the final drive.

Went to post at 3:49. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Albert F. Dewey is a much improved horse. He raced Ida Ledford into submission and had enough left to stall off Circus at the end but was doing his best through the last quarter. Circus made up much ground in the last quarter and finished fast. Malay made a bold bid when rounding the far turn but tired in the run home. Ida Ledford carried Annoy very wide when entering the homestretch and ran much below her best form.
Scratched—30806 Digby Bell, 86.

Went to post at 4:19. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Star Cotton went to the front with a rush when rounding the far turn, but was doing his best at the end to stall off Ben Chance. The latter did his best and finished strongly. Little Elkin saved ground on all turns, was under a hard drive all through the last quarter and was wearing the leaders down. He would have been second in a couple more strides. Garter Ban ran well to the stretch, where he tired and quit. Cast Iron ran out at the home turn.

He got into a jam on the first turn and had to go around his field to get up. Then he came on and finished strongly. Prowl ran a fairly good race, but hung when it came to a drive. Josie F. had a rough trip, was interfered with several times and came very strongly at the end when she got clear. I. Samelson and Goldaga were used up setting the pace. Frank Jones quit in the stretch.

O'Hagen, Prowl, Kafir, McChesney, Quicksilver Sue, Duke of Connaught, Lord Quex, Cast Iron, Dr. Hart, Hunter Raine, Pyrrho, I. Samelson and St. Tammany.

Jockey A. Johnson and the horses Divertissement, Miss Ransom and Faella, that were suspended on Saturday last in connection with the steeplechase scandal, were today declared eligible to take part in jumping races at the meeting.

RULED OFF.

CHARLESTON, S. C., February 26.—George Vunck, the owner of Bad Penny, was today formally ruled off the turf by the judges for use of an electric battery on the horse in his last start. The owner stoutly maintains his innocence and states that he absolutely did not know that a battery was to be used on his horse. His claim that he was approached by an unknown person before the race who offered him $50 not to withdraw his horse from the race, is still adhered to by him. The judges gave him ample time to locate this person and he having failed to do so left them no alternative in the matter but to rule owner and horse off the turf.

Went to post at 2:14. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Pencil Me was lucky throughout and finished stoutly. Derby Winner, off badly, closed a big gap, was much the best and would have won in another stride or two. Rasp tired in the stretch. Elkarn ran poorly. Bilitis got off badly and made up ground. Baldo ran a poor race.

Overweights—Pencil Me, 2 pounds; Derby Winner, 1; Rasp, 3; Flattered, 4; Woeful, 5; Elmer L., 3.

Winner—Br. f. by Orvieto—Coalesee.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mildred Schultz's fine speed was utilized early and she appeared a certain winner throughout and was easily best. Montoya broke slowly, traversed the worst going and was tiring fast at the end. Breton went moderately well. Lemuel, a good looker and working well, appears unable to get under headway early but finished well and evidently wants a long race to show at his best. Lento made up a lot of ground from a poor start. Sand de Lee ran fairly well.

Overweights—Mildred Schultz, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g. by Flambeau—Bonair.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Flamero, off well and allowed to have his head from the start, quickly took a long and winning lead and was easily best. Hungarian, badly ridden and waited with under restraint unduly long and then turned very wide into the stretch, finished fast and should have been closer up. Lavator ran well and is improving. Tyranus disliked the sloppy going and was unable to stride freely. Phil Archibald went very wide on both turns and prefers a sticky track. The Gaffer was outclassed.

Overweights—Flamero, 2 pounds; Hungarian, 2.

Went to post at 3:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sombrero outclassed the field in the going, but was in judiciously sent along, easily disposing of the lighter weighted sprinter Botany, and when challenged in the stretch had to be hustled some. In spite of a very unpromising preliminary, Colonel Ballantyne put up a cracking good race and showed more than average speed and stamina. His usefulness will last while the going is soft. Botany evidently was weak or is a non-stayer, as he tired almost to a walk after going six furlongs. Racing a fast furlong with the winner on the backstretch effectively settled his pretensions. Homestead's conformation and action are against his showing his true form on such a track and he tired early, spreading all over the track.

Scratched—30783<sup>2</sup>Diderot, 103.

Overweights—Colonel Ballantyne, 3 pounds.

The entry, show, out. Sombrero, singly, place and show, out. Colonel Ballantyne, show, 2 to 5. Homestead, singly, place, evens; show, 1 to 4.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Muresca beat the gate and made most of her advantage, opening a long and winning lead which she held throughout. Meehanus, off flatfooted, closed an immense gap, finished fast and was undoubtedly best today but unlucky. Tiburon under careful handling ran well, but with the others was outclassed by the first two. Mission, probably short, tired to almost a walk. Irate went moderately well only.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Larry Wilt, fresh and good, outclassed the field. Well up to the stretch, he came through in the bad going next to the rail and won going away. Senator Bruce displayed good early speed, but failed as usual to stay. Maratine finished fast. Lass of Langden broke flatfooted, closed gap on the pacemaker and appeared like winning in the stretch, but tired and quit suddenly. Ural made up some ground from a bad start. Forkford ran badly.

SCHORR'S HORSES.

John W. Schorr, the Memphis owner who has successfully campaigned a stable of horses for several years, recently stated that he had never made a dollar out of the business.

It has been estimated that the Schorr racers during a period of seven years have won in purses, stakes and over night handicaps over $400,000, yet so large has been the expense of maintaining a racing establishment that the senior Schorr is sincere in his statement that his dividends from the runners have not netted him a dollar. In pleasure, however, the local man has enriched himself to such an extent that his confession was made without a grumble or kick of any kind.

Horses of the aged division which have raced in Schorr silk may be counted on one's fingers. The stable has never been strong in equine timber of the handicap class; but in two-year-olds and three-year-olds it has contributed some of the stellar performers of the American turf. The first Derby added to the Schorr coffers was the Crescent City Derby of 1897, won by Meadowthorpe. Meadowthorpe's success was followed the next year by Presbyterian in the New Orleans classic.

Lieber Karl won the 1898 Tennessee Derby. Joe Frey proved the victor in the California Derby of 1901, and Sam Phillips won the St. Louis Derby in 1900, followed by Silverdale, who captured the St. Louis Derby last year. The two-year-old performances of Alard Scheck, F. W. Brode and Lady Schorr are full of victories, but in handicap horses the Schorr colors have never shone to any great extent.

Like previous seasons' campaigners, this year's Schorr string will be bereft of cracks in the all aged division. Lady Schorr, which has not started since her breakdown just prior to the running of the American Derby last year, and Silverdale, which has not started since he finished in the rack behind Robert Waddell, the American Derby victor, will be the best in the Schorr division this year.

Of the three-year-olds there are many colts and fillies which have yet to show their racing prowess, and seven maidens are among the number. Last year's crop of two-year-olds, while it was productive of the greatest filly of the year—Endurance by Right—was not as successful as other collections of youngsters sent from the Memphis training ground. —Daily America.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Jockey Willie Caywood has received an offer to ride the ensuing season for Baron E. von Mysrowicz, one of the most prominent turfmen in Russia. Caywood had been considering offers to go abroad for several weeks, carrying on negotiations through Frank Schaffenburg, of Vienna, who acts as an agent between American jockeys and Russian and Austrian owners. Schaffenburg tells Caywood he will guarantee the latter earnings amounting to $6,000 for the season. The contract, as offered by Schaffenburg, names $3,000 from the Baron as a retainer for first call on the jockey's services, in addition to which he is to receive 50 rubles (about $26) for each winning mount and 5 per cent of the first money of the purse. For being placed second or third he is to receive 25 rubles. The contract further agrees to allow Caywood to accept a second call on his services, and, also, to pay all his traveling expenses and his board and lodging, or, if preferred, 7 rubles a day and his hotel bill. Schaffenburg has asked Caywood to recommend two other good American jockeys whom, he says, he can easily place in good positions at good
